

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Manteno Dairy Queen Now Open

February, 16th, 2016 – Manteno, Illinois – Noble Stores, LLC is pleased to announce the Manteno Dairy Queen at 399 Southcreek Dr. is now open.

The site most recently operated as The Creamery. Since acquiring the property in June, Noble Stores, LLC has worked diligently to convert the store to facilitate their Dairy Queen operations “We have spent the last several months making substantial improvements and changes to the store. Customers can expect first-class cleanliness, responsiveness and quality.” states Jeff Webster, Noble Stores' Vice President of Operations.

The store will be managed by Emily Bauman, who has been serving as manager at the Maple Street Dairy Queen in Kankakee. “We have put together a great team, our systems are in place, and we are extremely eager to start serving our delicious Dairy Queen products” says Bauman.

Manteno has been home to Dairy Queen’s over the years, including one in the 1950’s and most recently a location inside the Shell gas station. Both were operated by franchisees, this will be the first Manteno location owned and operated directly by the Noble family. “We couldn’t be more pleased to opening in Manteno. Manteno is a robust community and will be a great fit for our company. We look forward to being a strong community partner” says Sue Stevens, co-owner and Sherb Noble’s daughter Noble Dairy Queen is the Original DQ franchisee. Founder, Sherb Noble, first introduced the revolutionary “Soft-Serve” ice cream product at his Kankakee Ice Cream shop in 1938. Two years later he opened the first Dairy Queen in Joliet. Today there are over 6,000 Dairy Queens in 20 countries.

The Manteno Dairy Queen is a treat only store. In addition to beloved DQ treats, Orange Julius Originals and Smoothies as well as DQ Cakes will be available. Noble DQ hand-makes their Dilly Bars, Buster Bars, DQ Sandwiches fresh on location.
